

ARKANSAS SUPREME COURT

No. 07-398

RICKEY C. BROOKS
Appellant

v.

LARRY NORRIS, DIRECTOR,
ARKANSAS DEPARTMENT OF
CORRECTION, et al
Appellee

Opinion Delivered June 7, 2007

PRO SE MOTION FOR EXTENSION
OF TIME TO FILE APPELLANT'S BRIEF [CIRCUIT COURT OF
LINCOLN COUNTY, LCV 2006-87,
HON. ROBERT H. WYATT, JR.,
JUDGE]

MOTION GRANTED.

PER CURIAM

Appellant Rickey Brooks, an inmate in the custody of the Arkansas Department of Correction (ADC), filed a pro se petition for declaratory judgment against the director of the ADC and others, seeking review by the Circuit Court of Lincoln County of certain administrative regulations. The petition was dismissed, and an appeal from the order has been lodged here. Appellant, who is proceeding pro se on appeal, now seeks an extension of thirty days' time to file the appellant's brief. He asserts that the extension is necessitated by his limited opportunity to use the prison library and the temporary lack of a stapler or folder to bind the brief.

The motion, which is the first such motion filed by appellant in this appeal, is granted. The time to submit the appellant's brief is extended to thirty days from the date of this opinion.

Motion granted.
